REPORTER IN PLANE DESCRIBES SCENE AS SECOND RACE BEGINS

FROM A SEAPLANE OVER RACING COURSE, July 17 .-By the Associated Press)-New York outer harbor put on its est holiday suft of sunshine and favorable weather early today and waited for the signal which was to start the second event of the classic event for international yachting supremacy between the British challenger Shamrock IV, and the American cup defender.

Across the vast stage already set with sharp drawn lines dividing land and sky officious little craft dodged in and out among their neighbors, streamers and flags afloat, making ready to assist watch the spectacle.

To the north lay Coney island and Rockaway beach, Westward the highland coast of New Jersey was already being dotted with trains, motor cars and groups of spectators.

Before 10 o'clock vessels of every port-supers-began to con gregate, keeping a respectful distance from Ambrose light vessel out of deference to a dusky chorus of destroyers doing duty as traffic police. The majority of these sightseers, brilliant with new white paint, were private or club-owned yachts and steamed with a degree of ostentation from the mouth of the Hudson,

Idly, like a truant schoolboy lingering to watch the bright parade, a liner flying a white star in a red field and the flag of Great Britain loafed across the harbor, waiting for a view of the racers which had not yet appeared. A series of rapid white puffs from alongside her funnel told the aerial observers she was tooting a greeting to her luckier sisters not enslaved by the laws of com-

The spectators gathered for the second race, schuded many more small craft than braved the squall of rain and electrical storms on Thursday.

LONDON, July 17—(By The Associated Press)—A threat to drive the Turk from Europe, once and for all, is contained in the allied reply to the Turkish objections to the peace treaty, made public here today. Such action might follow Turkey's refusal to sign the treaty or her failure to give it effect, the reply states.

The time limit for Turkey to make known her decision expires at midnight, July 27.

The allies have arranged to deliver this reply, which takes the form of an ultimatum, to the Turkish peace delegation in Paris this afternoon. The Turks are informed that the? must signify their willingness to sign the peace treaty within ten days, failing which "the allied powers will take such action as they may consider necessary in the circumstances."

The allies made some minor modifications in the treaty after the Turks had presented their protests, but it is understood that these modifications do not materially affect the original draft.
